Big SIR Fred Rose's Message

It is February! The little month with so much happening. The Super Bowl! Go Niners! Abe Lincoln's Birthday, Valentines Day (don't forget this one- it is way to cold to sleep in the garage), FRIDAY the 15th - Branch #17 SIR Meeting, and George Washington's Birthday!

This is the locker room speech. Go team, get in there and recruit new members! This is the message from SIRdom as you heard from President Dettmer at the last meeting. This is my message to you, we are a great bunch of guys. Bring your friends and neighbors to meet us! Join in our activities and have a great time.

We have some more great activities coming. Have you got a great activity in mind? Let's do it!

Congratulations to all of those receiving awards at our coming meeting. Region 10 Director James Filippo will be doing the presentations.

Little Sir Steve Virtue's Message

Our guest speaker at our Luncheon Meeting on Friday, February 15 is Golf Pro Jessica Reese Quayle.

Jessica is one of our own and one of our best.

She graduated from Montgomery High School in 1999 and played golf for the University of Texas. She was a top ranked national player receiving All-American and Team MVP honors while helping the Lady Longhorns to be ranked in the top 3 of the NCAA Division 1 Championships four years standing. She graduated from the University of Texas with a degree in Kinesiology, (also known as human kinetics, the scientific study of human movement).

Jessica played on the LPGA tour for 3 years, competing in national and international events. In 2006 she qualified for two majors, the Women's British Open and the McDonald's Championship.

Upon leaving the tour, Jessica taught golf at the Harvey Penick Golf Academy in Texas and has earned industry certifications as both a Class A LPGA Teaching Professional and a TPI (Titleist Performance Institute) Level Two Golf Professional.

Jessica serves as the Assistant Golf Coach of the Sonoma State University Women's Golf Team and teaches golf at Foxtail Golf Club in Rohnert Park. With a background in Kinetics, she is able to help golfers with physical limitations or pain.

January Attendance Report

At the January 18th meeting there were ninety-two members, two visitors, four guests, and one inductee.

Frank Meagher was the inductee with William Haynes to be reinstated at the February meeting.
